

2015 Form 140PY Schedule A(PY) Itemized Deductions

For Part-Year Residents Only

You may itemize your deductions on your Arizona return even if you do not itemize deductions on your federal return. Before you complete Arizona Form 140PY, Schedule A(PY), you must complete a federal Form 1040, Schedule A.

Even if you don't itemize deductions on your federal return, you must complete and include a copy of the federal Form 1040, Schedule A, with this form.

For the most part, you can deduct those items that are allowable itemized deductions under the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

A part-year resident who has no Arizona source income during the part of the year while an Arizona nonresident can deduct all of the following:

- Those expenses incurred and paid during the part of the year while an Arizona resident.
- Arizona source itemized deductions incurred and paid during the part of the year while a nonresident.

For more information, see the department's Individual Income Tax Ruling ITR 94-10 at www.azdor.gov.

In some cases, the itemized deductions allowed on your Arizona return are not the same as those allowable under the IRC. The itemized deductions allowed on your Arizona return can differ if any of the following apply:

- You are deducting medical and dental expenses.
- You are claiming a federal credit (from federal Form 8396) for interest paid on mortgage credit certificates.
- You are deducting gambling losses while claiming a subtraction for Arizona lottery winnings.
- You are claiming a credit for any amount allowed as a charitable contribution.

Complete Form 140PY, Schedule A(PY), as instructed below.
