General Instructions

Organizations Which Must File Form 99 or a Copy of the Federal Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax

Most organizations that have tax exempt status under ARS § 43-1201 must file Form 99 or a copy of the organization's federal return of organization exempt from income tax only if their gross income exceeds $25,000.

However, the following exempt organizations do not have to file Form 99 or a copy of the organization's federal return of organization exempt from income tax regardless of the amount of gross income.

- A religious organization exempt under ARS §43-1201, paragraph 4.
- An educational organization exempt under ARS § 43-1201, paragraph 4. The organization must normally maintain a regular faculty and students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly conducted.
- A charitable organization or an organization for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, exempt under ARS § 43-1201, paragraph 4. The organization must receive its support, in whole or in part, from funds contributed by the United States, or any state or political subdivision thereof, or receive its primary support from contributions of the general public.
- An organization exempt under ARS § 43-1201, paragraph 4, if the operation, supervision, or control of the organization is by, or in connection with, a religious organization exempt under ARS § 43-1201, paragraph 4.
- An organization exempt solely under ARS § 43-1201, paragraph 2.

NOTE: Homeowners associations described in IRC § 528 are not exempt from tax under ARS § 43-1201. These organizations must file Form 120A. However, certain homeowners associations are federally tax exempt under IRC § 501 (c)(4), as social welfare organizations, or under IRC § 501(c)(7), as clubs organized for pleasure or recreation. These homeowners associations are similarly tax exempt for Arizona income tax purposes. These organizations may file the Form 99.

Filing Original Returns

The due date for the Form 99 or the copy of the federal return of organization exempt from income tax is the 15th day of the fifth calendar month after the close of the taxable year. If the organization has a valid federal or Arizona extension, file the return by the extended due date. If the organization uses an ARIZONA extension, the organization must attach a copy of the Arizona extension to the front of the Arizona return or the copy of the federal return of organization exempt from income tax.

Send the return to the Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 29079, Phoenix AZ 85038-9079. If the organization files the Form 99, attach a copy of the appropriate federal return.

The department normally determines the timeliness of a return by the postmark or other official mark of the U.S. Postal Service stamped on the envelope in which the return is mailed. Refer to Arizona General Tax Ruling GTR 93-1 for further information. The department will also accept proof of mailing from a private delivery service included in the Internal Revenue Service list of designated private delivery services. Contact the private delivery service for information regarding how to obtain the written proof of mailing.

Extension of Time To File a Return

The organization can apply for an Arizona extension by filing a completed Form 120EXT by the original due date of the return. The organization can also use a valid federal extension rather than applying for an Arizona extension. If the organization uses an ARIZONA extension, the organization must attach a copy of the Arizona extension to the front of the Arizona return or the copy of the federal return of organization exempt from income tax.

The department grants an Arizona extension for a period of six months. Arizona will accept the federal extension for the same period of time as covered by the federal extension.

Penalty

An information return that is incomplete or filed after its due date (including extensions) is subject to a $500 penalty.

Filing Amended Returns

File amended returns within four years of the filing of the original return.

- Organization that filed a copy of its federal return of organization exempt from income tax - file a copy of the amended federal return of organizations exempt from income tax.
- Organization that filed Form 99 - attach a statement to the amended return that explains why the organization amended its Arizona return. If the organization amended its federal return, attach a copy of the amended federal return with all applicable schedules to the amended Arizona return.

Specific Instructions

Type or print the required information in the name, address, and information boxes at the top of page 1. Indicate the period covered by the taxable year (in an MM/DD/YYYY format) and whether the taxable year is a calendar year or a fiscal year. Indicate whether this return is an original or an amended return.

Enter the federal employer identification number of the organization, which is its taxpayer identification number (TIN). Enter the Arizona withholding tax number and Arizona transaction privilege tax number for the organization.

All returns, statements, and other documents filed with the department require a taxpayer identification number (TIN). Taxpayers that fail to include their TIN may be subject to a penalty. Paid tax return preparers must include their TIN where requested. The TIN for a paid tax return preparer is the individual's social security number or preparer identification number or the federal employer identification number of the business. Paid tax return preparers that fail to include their TIN may be subject to a penalty.
