Who Must Use Form 140?

You (and your spouse if married filing a joint return) may file Form 140 only if you are full year residents of Arizona.

You must use Form 140 rather than Form 140A or Form 140EZ to file for 2005 if any of the following apply to you.

- Your Arizona taxable income is $50,000 or more, regardless of filing status.
- You are making adjustments to income.
- You itemize deductions.
- You claim tax credits other than the family income tax credit, the credit for increased excise taxes, the property tax credit, or the Clean Elections Fund tax credit.

Do You Have to File?

Arizona Filing Requirements
These rules apply to all Arizona taxpayers.
You must file if you are:	AND your Arizona adjusted gross income is at least:	OR your gross income is at least:
● Single	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Married filing jointly	$11,000	$15,000
● Married filing separately	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Head of household	$ 5,500	$15,000

If you are an Arizona resident, you must report income from all sources. This includes out-of-state income.

To see if you have to file, figure your gross income the same as you would figure your gross income for federal income tax purposes. Then, you should exclude income Arizona law does not tax.

Income Arizona law does not tax includes:

- Interest from U.S. Government obligations
- Social security retirement benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act
- Benefits received under the Railroad Retirement Act

You can find your Arizona adjusted gross income on line 16 of Arizona Form 140.

NOTE: Even if you do not have to file, you must still file a return to get a refund of any Arizona income tax withheld.

Do You Have to File if You Are an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all the following apply to you.

- You are an enrolled member of an Indian tribe.
- You live on the reservation established for that tribe.
- You earned all of your income on that reservation.

To find out more, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4.

Do You Have to File if You Are a Non-Indian or Non-Enrolled Indian Married to an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements. For details on how to figure what income to report, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4.

Do You Have to File if You Are in the Military?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements.

If you are an Arizona resident, you must report all of your income, no matter where stationed. You must include your military pay. If you were an Arizona resident when you entered the service, you remain an Arizona resident, no matter where stationed, until you establish a new domicile.

If you are not an Arizona resident, but stationed in Arizona, the following applies to you.

- You are not subject to Arizona income tax on your military pay.

If You Included Your Child's Unearned Income on Your Federal Return, Does Your Child Have to File an Arizona Return?

In this case, the child should not file an Arizona return. The parent must include that same income in his or her Arizona taxable income.

Residency Status

If you are not sure if you are an Arizona resident for state income tax purposes, you should get Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 92-1.

Residents

You are a resident of Arizona if your domicile is in Arizona. Domicile is the place where you have your permanent home. It is where you intend to return if you are living or working temporarily in another state or country. If you leave Arizona for a temporary period, you are still an Arizona resident while gone. A resident is subject to tax on all income no matter where the resident earns the income.

Part-Year Residents

If you are a part-year resident, you must file Form 140PY, Part-Year Resident Personal Income Tax Return.

You are a part-year resident if you did either of the following during 2005.

- You moved into Arizona with the intent of becoming a resident.
- You moved out of Arizona with the intent of giving up your Arizona residency.

Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident, you must file Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return.

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 2005, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

The person who files the return should use the form the taxpayer would have used. If the department mailed the taxpayer a booklet, do not use the label. The person who files the return should print the word "deceased" after the decedent's name in the address section of the form. Also enter the date of death after the decedent's name.

If your spouse died in 2005 and you did not remarry in 2005, or if your spouse died in 2006 before filing a return for 2005, you may file a joint return. If your spouse died in 2005, the joint return should show your spouse's 2005 income before death, and your income for all of 2005. If your spouse died in 2006, before filing the 2005 return, the joint return should show all of your income and all of your spouse's income for 2005. Print "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign the return.

e-file e-File the return to receive the refund in as little as 5 days with direct deposit option.

Are Any Other Returns Required?

You may also have to file a fiduciary income tax return. For details about filing a fiduciary income tax return, call the department at (602) 255-3381.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund, you must complete Form 131, Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer. Attach this form to the front of the return.

What Are The Filing Dates And Penalties?

When Should You File?

April 15, 2006 falls on a Saturday. Therefore, your 2005 calendar year tax return is due no later than midnight, April 17, 2006. File your return as soon as you can after January 1, but no later than April 17, 2006.

If you are a fiscal year filer, your return is due on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year.

What if You Cannot File on Time?

You may request an extension if you know you will not be able to file on time.

NOTE: An extension does not extend the time to pay your income tax. For details, see the instructions for Arizona Form 204.

To get a filing extension, you can either:

- Apply for a state extension (Form 204). To apply for a state extension, file Arizona Form 204 by April 17. See Form 204 for details. You do not have to attach a copy of the extension to your return when you file, but make sure that you check either box 82D or 82F on page 1 of the return. If you must make a payment, use Arizona Form 204.
- You may use your federal extension (federal Form 4868). File your Arizona return by the same due date. You do not have to attach a copy of your federal extension to your return, but make sure that you check box 82F on page 1 of the return.

When Should You File if You Are a Nonresident Alien?

You must file your Arizona tax return by April 17, even though your federal income tax return is due on June 15. If you want to file your Arizona return when you file your federal return, you may ask for an extension. See Form 204 for extension filing details.

What if You File or Pay Late?

If you file or pay late, the department will charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe. If the U.S. Post Office postmarks your 2005 calendar year return by April 17, 2006, your return will not be late. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

Late Filing Penalty

If you file late, the department will charge you a late filing penalty. This penalty is 4½ percent of the tax required to be shown on the return for each month or fraction of a month the return is late. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the tax found to be remaining due.

Late Payment Penalty

If you pay your tax late, the department will charge you a late payment penalty. This penalty is ½ of 1 percent (.005) of the amount shown as tax for each month or fraction of a month for which the failure continues. This penalty cannot exceed a total of 10 percent.

Extension Underpayment Penalty

If you file your return under an extension, you must pay 90 percent of the tax shown on your return by the return's original due date. If you do not pay this amount, the department will charge you a penalty. This penalty is ½ of one percent (.005) of the tax not paid for each 30 day period or fraction of a 30 day period. The department charges this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the unpaid tax.

NOTE: If you are subject to two or more of the above penalties, the total cannot exceed 25 percent.

Interest

The department charges interest on any tax not paid by the due date. The department will charge you interest even if you have an extension. If you have an extension, the department will charge you interest from the original due date until the date you pay the tax. The Arizona interest rate is the same as the federal rate.

When Should You Amend a Return?

If you need to make changes to your return once you have filed, you should file Form 140X, Individual Amended Return. Do not file a new return for the year you are correcting. Generally, you have four years to amend a return to claim a refund.

If you amend your federal return for any year, you must also file an Arizona Form 140X for that year. You must file the Form 140X within 90 days of amending your federal return.

If the IRS makes a change to your federal taxable income for any year, you must report that change to Arizona. You may use one of the following two options to report this change.

Option 1

You may file a Form 140X for that year. If you choose this option, you must amend your Arizona return within 90 days of the change. Attach a complete copy of the federal notice to your Form 140X.

Option 2

You may file a copy of the final federal notice with the department within 90 days. If you choose this option, you must include a statement in which you must:

1. Request that the department recompute your tax; and
2. Indicate if you agree or disagree with the federal notice.

If you do not agree with the federal notice, you must also include any documents that show why you do not agree.

If you choose option 2, mail the federal notice and any other documents to:

Arizona Department of Revenue
1600 W. Monroe, Attention: Individual Income Audit
Phoenix, AZ 85007-2650

Do You Need To Make Estimated Payments in 2006?

You must make Arizona estimated income tax payments during 2006 if:

Your filing status is:	AND Your Arizona gross income for 2005 was greater than:	AND Your Arizona gross income for 2006 exceeds:
Married Filing Joint	$150,000	$150,000
Single	$75,000	$75,000
Head of Household	$75,000	$75,000
Married Filing Separately	$75,000	$75,000

If you met the income threshold for 2005, you must make estimated payments during 2006 unless you are sure you will not meet the threshold for 2006.

As a full year resident, your Arizona gross income is your federal adjusted gross income. This amount is on line 12 of the 2005 Form 140.

See the worksheet for Form 140ES to figure how much your payments should be.

What If You Make Your Estimated Payments Late?

The department will charge you a penalty if you fail to make any required payments. The department will charge you a penalty if you make any of your required payments late.

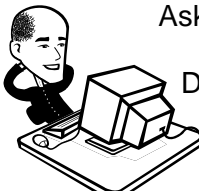

For details, see Arizona Form 221.

Can You Make Estimated Payments If You Do Not Have To?

If you do not have to make Arizona estimated income tax payments, you may still choose to make them.

For details, see Arizona Form 140ES.

If your booklet has a peel-off label, use that label if all the information is correct. If any of the information on the label is incorrect, do not use the label. Attach the label after you finish your return. If you do not have a peel-off label, print or type your name, address, and SSN in the space provided.

 If you e-File, you do not need a label.

If you are filing a joint return, enter your SSNs in the same order as your names. If your name appears first on the return, make sure your SSN is the first number listed. If you are a nonresident of the United States or a resident alien who does not have an SSN use the identification number (ITIN) the IRS issued to you.

For a deceased taxpayer, see page 2 of these instructions.

Determining Your Filing Status

The filing status that you use on your Arizona return may be different from that used on your federal return.

Use this section to determine your filing status. Check the correct box (4 through 7) on the front of Form 140.

Line 4 Box - Married Filing a Joint Return

You may use this filing status if married as of December 31, 2005. It does not matter whether or not you were living with your spouse. You may elect to file a joint return, even if you and your spouse filed separate federal returns.

You may use this filing status if your spouse died during 2005 and you did not remarry in 2005. See page 2 of these instructions for details.

The Arizona Form 140 is for full year residents only. You may not file a joint Arizona income tax return on Form 140 if any of the following apply.

1. Your spouse is a nonresident alien (citizen of and living in another country).
2. Your spouse is a resident of another state.
3. Your spouse is a part-year Arizona resident.

If filing a joint return with your nonresident spouse, you may file a joint return using Form 140NR. See Form 140NR instructions.

If filing a joint return with your part-year resident spouse, you may file a joint return using Form 140PY. See Form 140PY instructions.

For details on filing a joint return with your part-year resident or nonresident spouse, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 95-2.

Line 5 Box - Head of Household

You may file as head of household on your Arizona return, only if one of the following applies.

You may use this filing status if married as of December 31, 2005, and you elect to file a separate Arizona return. You may elect to file a separate return, even if you and your spouse filed a joint federal return.

If you are filing a separate return, check the line 6 box and enter your spouse's name in the space provided. Also enter your spouse's SSN in the space provided.

Arizona is a community property state. If you file a separate return, you must figure how much income to report using community property laws. Under these laws, a separate return must reflect one-half of the community income from all sources plus any separate income.

When you file separate returns, you must account for community deductions and credits on the same basis as community income. Both you and your spouse must either itemize or not itemize. If one of you itemizes, you both must itemize. If one of you takes a standard deduction, you both must take a standard deduction. One of you may not claim a standard deduction while the other itemizes.

If you and your spouse support a dependent child from community income, either you or your spouse may claim the dependent. Both of you cannot claim the same dependent on both returns.

For details on how to file a separate Arizona income tax return, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Rulings ITR 93-18 and ITR 93-19.

NOTE: If you can treat community income as separate income on your federal return, you may also treat that community income as separate on your Arizona return. See Arizona Department of Revenue Ruling ITR 93-22.

If you are filing a separate return and your spouse is not a resident of Arizona, other special rules may apply. For more details, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling, ITR 93-20.

You may exclude any expenses incurred to purchase or carry the obligation. Reduce the interest income by the amount of those expenses that you could not deduct on your federal return.

If you received tax exempt interest from municipal bonds, attach a schedule listing the payors and the amount received from each payor. You may also want to attach supporting documents for amounts received from Arizona municipal bonds that are exempt from Arizona income tax. These may be items such as bank statements, brokerage statements, etc.

Line B7 - Early Withdrawal of Arizona, County, City, or School Retirement System Contributions

If you meet all of the following, you must enter an amount here.

1. You left your job with the State of Arizona or an Arizona county, city, or school district for reasons other than retirement.
2. When you left, you took out the contributions you had made to the retirement system while employed.
3. You deducted these contributions on your Arizona income tax returns that you filed for prior years.
4. You did not include these contributions in your federal adjusted gross income this year.

If you meet all these tests, you must report as income those contributions previously deducted on your prior years' Arizona tax returns.

For details, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 93-7.

Line B8 - Ordinary Income Portion of Lump Sum Distributions Excluded on Your Federal Return

Use line B8 if you use federal averaging for lump-sum distributions from your pension or profit-sharing plan.

Arizona law does not provide for averaging. Enter the amount of the distribution that you treated as ordinary income on your federal return. If you choose to treat the capital gain portion of the distribution as ordinary income, you must also include that amount.

For details, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 93-5.

Line B9 - Total Federal Depreciation

Enter the total amount of depreciation deducted on the federal return. If you make an entry here, also see line C23.

You must add amounts received from an MSA here if any of the following apply.

1 - You Withdrew Funds From Your MSA For Other Than Qualified Expenses

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. You withdrew money from your MSA during 2005.
2. You did not use the amount withdrawn to pay qualified medical expenses.
3. You did not have to include the withdrawal as income on your federal income tax return.

Enter the amount withdrawn.

2 - Deceased Account Holder Where the Named Beneficiary is Not the Decedent's Surviving Spouse

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. The account holder died during the year.
2. You are the named beneficiary of the decedent's MSA.
3. You are not the decedent's surviving spouse.
4. You did not have to include the value of the MSA as income on your federal income tax return.

In this case, the MSA ceased to be an MSA. Enter the fair market value of the MSA as of the date of death, less the amount of MSA funds used within one year of the date of death, to pay the decedent's qualified medical expenses. You can reduce the fair market value by only those expenses paid from the MSA. If you pay additional medical expenses for the decedent from the MSA after you file, you may file an amended return to further reduce the fair market value of the MSA.

3 - Decedent's Final Return And No Named MSA Beneficiary

Make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. The account holder died during the year.
2. There is no named MSA beneficiary.
3. This is the decedent's final return.
4. The value of the MSA did not have to be included on the decedent's final federal income tax return.

In this case, the MSA ceases to be an MSA. Enter the fair market value of the MSA as of the date of death. This rule applies in all cases in which there is no named beneficiary, even if the surviving spouse ultimately obtains the right to the MSA assets.

NOTE: The following are not withdrawals. Do not enter any of the following:

- Amounts from the MSA used to pay qualified medical expenses
- A qualified return of excess contributions
- A qualified rollover
- The fair market value of an MSA received by a surviving spouse who was the deceased account holder's named beneficiary

For more information about the above items, see the department's MSA brochure, Pub 542.

Line B11 - I.R.C. § 179 Expense in Excess of Allowable Amount

Enter the amount of IRC § 179 expense deducted on the federal return that exceeds $25,000.

Line B12 - Other Additions to Income

Use line B12 if any of the special circumstances below apply.

Attach your own schedule to the back of your return explaining any amounts entered here.

You may either add or subtract items A through D below (line B12 or C28, respectively) depending on your situation.

A. Pension Adjustments

Use this adjustment if both of the following apply.

1. Arizona taxed your pension for years before 1979.
2. You reported that pension on your federal return using the percentage exclusion method.

Do not use this adjustment if either of the following apply.

1. You reported your pension income as fully taxable on your federal return.
2. You reported your pension income on your federal return under the "three-year-rule".

Pension Adjustment Worksheet - Line B12
Follow these steps to figure the adjustment. Worksheet (Keep for your records.)
1. Your contribution to annuity.	1.
2. Pension amount received in prior years.	2.
3. Remainder of cost (line 1 minus line 2 but not less than zero).	3.
4. Pension amount received this year.	4.
5. Subtract line 3 from line 4 (but not less than zero).	5.
6. Enter the pension amount taxable on your federal return.	6.
7. Subtract line 6 from line 5.	7.
If line 7 is more than zero, enter the amount on line 7 as an addition to income. Enter the addition on line B12.
If line 6 is more than line 5, enter the difference as a subtraction from income. Enter the subtraction on line C28.

B. Married Persons Filing Separate Returns

If you file a separate Arizona return, you must report the following income on that return.

- one-half of the community income from all sources.
- all of your separate income.

If you and your spouse file a joint federal return but separate Arizona returns, you must make sure that each separate return reflects the correct income. If you begin your Arizona return with only the income that you earned during the year, you will have to adjust this income.

If you file separate federal returns, each of your federal returns should already reflect the correct income. Since your separate Arizona returns will begin with the federal adjusted gross income, you will not have to adjust your income.

If you have to adjust your income, attach a schedule showing how you figured your adjustment.

C. Partnership Income

Use this adjustment if your Arizona Form 165, Schedule K-1, shows a difference between federal and state distributable income.

If the difference reported on your Arizona Form 165, Schedule K-1, is a positive number, enter that difference as an addition. Enter the addition on line B12.

If the difference reported on your Arizona Form 165, Schedule K-1, is a negative number, enter that difference as a subtraction. Enter the subtraction on line C28.

D. Fiduciary Adjustment

A fiduciary uses Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1, to report to you your share of the fiduciary adjustment from the trust or estate.

Line 3 of Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1, shows your share of the fiduciary adjustment from the estate or trust. If the amount reported on line 3 of your Arizona Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1, is a positive number, enter that amount as an addition. Enter the addition on line B12.

If the amount reported on line 3 of your Arizona Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1, is a negative number, enter that amount as a subtraction. Enter the subtraction on line C28.

E. Net Operating Losses

Arizona does not have specific net operating loss provisions for individual taxpayers. Arizona conforms to the federal net operating loss provisions, including the carryback provisions. Generally, the amount of net operating loss deduction included in your federal adjusted gross income is the amount allowable for Arizona purposes. However, there are instances when the amount allowable for Arizona purposes may be different. You must adjust the amount of net operating loss deduction included in your federal adjusted gross income if the following apply.

1. You have already deducted any amount of the net operating loss included in your federal adjusted gross income for Arizona purposes.
2. You took a separate subtraction for the net operating loss on an amended return filed for a prior tax year under the special net operating loss transition rule.

If the above apply, enter the following on line B12.

1. The amount of net operating loss included in your federal adjusted gross income which you previously deducted for Arizona purposes.
2. The amount of net operating loss included in your federal adjusted gross income for which you took a separate subtraction on an amended return filed for a prior tax year under the special net operating loss transition rule.

For information on deducting a net operating loss carryback, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 99-1.

F. Items Previously Deducted for Arizona Purposes

Arizona statutes prohibit a taxpayer from deducting items more than once. However, under the operation of former Arizona law (1989 and prior), you could deduct certain items in greater amounts for Arizona purposes than for federal purposes.

Investment interest and passive activity losses were such items. In some cases, you could have deducted such amounts in their entirety on the Arizona return. For federal purposes, the deduction for these items was limited, with the unused portions being carried forward and deducted in future years. Your Arizona return may include these previously deducted items because of the difference between the federal and former Arizona treatment. If your Arizona taxable income includes items previously deducted for Arizona purposes, you must add such amounts to your Arizona gross income.

G. Claim of Right Adjustment for Amounts Repaid in 2005

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. During 2005, you were required to repay amounts held under a claim of right.

3. You took a deduction for the amount repaid on your 2005 federal income tax return.

2. You computed your tax for that prior year under Arizona's claim of right provisions.
3. A net operating loss or capital loss was established due to the repayment made in the prior year.
4. You are entitled to take that net operating loss or capital loss carryover into account when computing your 2005 Arizona taxable income.

If you are itemizing deductions on your Arizona return, you must exclude such expenses from the amount deducted.

NOTE: Do not subtract interest earned on FNMA or GNMA bonds since this interest is taxable by Arizona. For details, see the department's income tax ruling, ITR 02-1.

Do not subtract any amount received from a qualified pension plan that invests in U.S. Government obligations. Do not subtract any amount received from an IRA that invests in U.S. Government obligations. These amounts are not interest income. ## Line C22 - Social Security Benefits or Railroad Retirement Benefits

Arizona does not tax social security benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act. The subtraction is equal to 5% of the sales price excluding commissions, taxes, interest, points, and other brokerage, finance and escrow charges. The subtraction cannot exceed $5,000 for each new qualifying residence.

Use line C28 if any of the following special circumstances apply. Attach your own schedule to the back of your return explaining any amounts entered here.

A. Previously Reported Gain on Decedent's Installment Sale

Prior Arizona law required acceleration of any unrecognized installment sale gain upon the death of a taxpayer. However, this acceleration could have been avoided by the posting of a bond. If acceleration was required, your federal adjusted gross income may include installment sale amounts already recognized on a decedent's final Arizona return. If your federal adjusted gross income includes such amounts, you may subtract that portion of the gain included on your federal return.

B. Fiduciary Adjustment

A fiduciary uses Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1 to report to you your share of the fiduciary adjustment from the trust or estate.

The conversion of an existing wood burning fireplace to noncombustible gas logs that are permanently installed in the fireplace also qualifies as a gas fired fireplace.

(Note: The practical effect of this is to allow a subtraction for the difference in basis for any asset for which bonus depreciation has been claimed on the federal return.)

O. Adjustment for IRC § 179 Expense Not Allowed

Enter 20% of the amount entered on line B11. This same amount can be subtracted in each of the following four taxable years also, effectively amortizing the difference in treatment over five years. #### Line 12 - Federal Adjusted Gross Income

You must complete your federal return before you enter an amount on line 12. You must complete a 2005 federal return to determine your federal adjusted gross income even if not filing a federal return.

Arizona uses federal adjusted gross income as a starting point to determine Arizona taxable income. Your federal adjusted gross income is your Arizona gross income.

If the amount on line 12 is more than $75,000 ($150,000 if filing a joint return), you may need to make estimated payments. See "Do You Need to Make Estimated Payments" instructions on page 3.

Line 13 - Additions to Income

Enter the amount from line B13, page 2, of your return.

Line 15 - Subtractions From Income

Enter the amount from page 2, line C18 or line C29.

Figuring Your Tax

Line 17 - Itemized or Standard Deductions

You must decide whether to take the standard deduction or to itemize your deductions. Your Arizona income tax will be less if you take the larger of your standard deduction or your itemized deduction.

 When you e-File, the software completes the math for you.

Your Standard Deduction

If you take the standard deduction, check box 17S.

If your filing status is:	Your standard deduction is:
• Single	$4,125
• Married filing separately	$4,125
• Married filing jointly	$8,250
• Head of household	$8,250

Your Itemized Deductions

You may claim itemized deductions on your Arizona return even if you take a standard deduction on your federal return. For the most part, you may claim those deductions allowable as itemized deductions under the Internal Revenue Code. In some cases, the amount allowed for some deductions may not be the same as the amount allowable for federal purposes. You may have to adjust the amounts shown on your completed federal Form 1040, Schedule A. See Form 140 Schedule A, Itemized Deduction Adjustments to figure if you have to make any adjustments.

To figure your itemized deductions, you must complete a federal Form 1040, Schedule A. Then, if required, complete Form 140 Schedule A, Itemized Deduction Adjustments. If you do not have to complete Form 140 Schedule A, Itemized Deduction Adjustments, enter the amount from federal Form 1040, Schedule A, on Form 140, line 17.

NOTE: If you itemize, you must attach a copy of the completed federal Schedule A to your Arizona return. If itemizing, check box 17I.

Line 18 - Personal Exemptions

The amount you may claim as a personal exemption depends on your filing status. If married, the amount you may claim as a personal exemption also depends on whether you or your spouse claim dependents. You may use the chart below to figure your personal exemption. If married, you may also use Form 202 to figure your personal exemption.

Personal Exemption Chart
If you checked filing status:	Enter:
• Single (Box 7)	$2,100
• Married filing joint return (Box 4) and claiming no dependents (Box 10)	$4,200
• Married filing joint return (Box 4) and claiming at least one dependent (Box 10 excluding persons listed on Page 2, line A3a)	$6,300
• Head of household and you are not married (Box 5)	$4,200
• Head of household and you are a married person who qualifies to file as head of household (Box 5)	$3,150, Or Complete Form 202 Personal Exemption Allocation Election.
• Married filing separately (Box 6) with neither spouse claiming any dependents (Box 10)	$2,100, Or Complete Form 202 Personal Exemption Allocation Election.
• Married filing separately (Box 6) with one spouse claiming at least one dependent (Box 10 excluding persons listed on Page 2, line A3a)	$3,150, Or Complete Form 202 Personal Exemption Allocation Election.

A married couple who does not claim any dependents may take one personal exemption of $4,200. If the husband and wife file separate returns, either spouse may take the entire $4,200 exemption, or the spouses may divide the $4,200 between them. You and your spouse must complete Form 202 if either you or your spouse claim a personal exemption of more than $2,100. Figuring Your Refund or Tax Due*Line 54 - Refund

e-file You can get your refund in as little as 5 days when you e-File and use direct deposit.

Subtract line 53 from line 41. Enter your refund on line 54 and skip line 55.

If you owe money to any state agency and certain federal agencies, your refund may go to pay some of the debt. If so, the department will let you know by letter.

Tax Tip: If you change your address before you get your refund, let the department know. Write to: Refund Desk, Arizona Department of Revenue, 1600 W Monroe, Phoenix AZ 85007. Include your social security number in your letter.

Direct Deposit of Refund

Complete the direct deposit line if you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 54 into your account at a bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm or credit union) instead of sending you a check.

Why Use Direct Deposit?

- You will get your refund fast – even faster if you e-file!
- Payment is more secure since there is no check to get lost.
- It is more convenient. No trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- Saves tax dollars. A refund by direct deposit costs less to process than a check.

Tax Tip: You can check with your financial institution to make sure your deposit will be accepted and to get the correct routing and account numbers. The department is not responsible for a lost refund if you enter the wrong account information.

If you file a joint return and fill in the direct deposit line, you are appointing your spouse as an agent to receive the refund. This appointment cannot be changed later.

NOTE: The department is not responsible if a financial institution rejects a direct deposit. If the direct deposit is rejected, a check will be sent instead.

Routing Number

The routing number must be 9 digits. The first 2 digits must be 01 through 12 or 21 through 32. Otherwise, the direct deposit will be rejected and a check sent instead. On the following sample check, the routing number is 250250025.

Your check may state that it is payable through a financial institution different from the one at which you have your checking account. If so, do not use the routing number on that check. Instead, contact your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter here.

Account Number

The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. On the sample check that follows the account number is 20202086. Be sure not to include the check number.

Sample Check

The sample check is for JOHN DOE OR JANE DOE, 123 First Street, Sometown, AZ 00000. The check number is 1234. The routing number is 250250025 and the account number is 20202086. The check is payable to the order of the recipient for $1234.00. A note indicates that the routing and account numbers may be in different places on the check.

Note: The routing and account numbers may be in different places on your check.

Line 55 - Amount Owed

e-file With direct payment and e-File, you do not have to worry about your check getting lost.

Add lines 38 and 53. Enter the amount you owe on line 55. If you are making voluntary donations on lines 43 through 49 in excess of your overpayment, enter the difference on line 55.

Make your check payable to Arizona Department of Revenue. Write your social security number on the front of your check or money order. Attach your check or money order to your return where shown.

The department cannot accept checks or money orders in foreign currency. You must make payment in U.S. dollars.

Installment Payments

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 55 when you file, you may ask to make monthly installment payments. To make this request, complete Arizona Form 140IA and mail the completed form to the address on the Form 140IA. Do not mail Form 140IA with your income tax return. You may obtain Arizona Form 140IA from our web site at www.azdor.gov.

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 55, you will be charged interest and may be charged a late payment penalty on the tax not paid by April 17, 2006. To limit the interest and penalty charges, pay as much of the tax as possible when you file.

Sign Your Return

You must sign your return. If married filing a joint return, both you and your spouse must sign even if only one had income. Form 140 is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. The department cannot send a refund check without proper signatures on the return.

Instructions Before Mailing

  - Be sure you enter your home telephone number in the space provided on the front of your return. If your daytime telephone number is not the same as your home number, also enter a daytime number.

7. If you have tax exempt interest income, be sure to attach a schedule listing the payors and the amount received from each payor.

Filing Your Return

Before you mail your return, make a copy of your return. Also make a copy of any schedules that you are sending in with your return. Keep the copies for your records. Be sure that you file the original and not a copy.

To mail your return, use an envelope that came in your booklet.

To avoid delays, please use separate envelopes for each return.

Where Should I Mail My Return?

Forget about the mail and the late night run to the post office – e-File from the comfort of home.

If you are expecting a refund, or owe no tax, or owe tax but are not sending a payment, use the yellow address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52138, Phoenix AZ 85072-2138 (PO Box 29205, Phoenix AZ 85038-9205 if there is a bar code in the box between lines 11 and 26 of your return).

If you are sending a payment with this return, use the white address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52016, Phoenix AZ 85072-2016 (PO Box 29204, Phoenix AZ 85038-9204 if there is a bar code in the box between lines 11 and 26 of your return).

Make sure you put enough postage on the envelope.

With e-File, you do not have to worry if there is enough postage on the envelope. You even get notice that we received your return.

The U.S. Post Office must postmark your return or extension request by midnight April 17. A postage meter postmark will not qualify as a timely postmark. Only a postmark from the U.S. Post Office will qualify. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the “timely mailing as timely filed” rule.

How Long To Keep Your Return

You must keep your records as long as they may be needed for the administration of any provision of Arizona tax law. Generally, this means you must keep records that support items shown on your return until the period of limitations for that return runs out.

The period of limitations is the period of time in which you can amend your return to claim a credit or refund or the department can assess additional tax. A period of limitations is the limited time after which no legal action can be brought. Usually, this is four years from the date the return was due or filed.

In some cases, the limitation period is longer than four years. The period is six years from when you file a return if you underreport the income shown on that return by more than 25 percent. The department can bring an action at any time if a return is false or fraudulent, or you do not file a return. To find out more about what records you should keep, get federal Publication 552.

When To Expect Your Refund

Expect your refund in the mail within 8 weeks of the date you filed. If you have not received your refund by that time, contact one of the numbers listed on the back cover. Before you call, be sure to have a copy of your 2005 tax return available because you will need to know the first social security number shown on your return, the filing status, your 5 digit zip code and the exact whole-dollar amount of your refund.

Calling the Department

Your tax information on file with the department is confidential. If you want the department to discuss your tax matters with someone other than yourself, you must authorize the department to release confidential information to that person. You may use Form 285 to authorize the department to release confidential information to your appointee. See Form 285 for details.
