Who Can Use Form 140A?

You can use Form 140A to file for 2011 if all of the following apply to you.

- You (and your spouse if married filing a joint return) are full year residents of Arizona.
- Your Arizona taxable income is less than $50,000, regardless of your filing status.
- You are not making any adjustments to income.
- You do not itemize deductions.
- The only tax credits you can claim are:
 - the family income tax credit,
 - the property tax credit,
 - the credit for increased excise taxes,
 - the Clean Elections Fund tax credit.
- You are not claiming estimated tax payments.

NOTE: DO not use Form 140A if you are an active duty military member. You may subtract all of your active duty military pay included in your federal adjusted gross income, but you cannot do this on Form 140A. To take this subtraction, you must file your 2011 return using Form 140. For more information, see Form 140 instructions.

Do You Have to File?

Arizona Filing Requirements These rules apply to all Arizona taxpayers.
You must file if you are:	and your Arizona adjusted gross income is at least:	or your gross income is at least:
● Single	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Married filing jointly	$11,000	$15,000
● Married filing separately	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Head of household	$ 5,500	$15,000

If you are an Arizona resident, you must report income from all sources. This includes out-of-state income.

To see if you have to file, figure your gross income the same as you would figure your gross income for federal income tax purposes. Then, you should exclude income Arizona law does not tax.

Income Arizona law does not tax includes:

- Interest from U.S. Government obligations
- Social security retirement benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act
- Benefits received under the Railroad Retirement Act
- Active duty military pay
- Pay received for active service as a reservist or a National Guard member

You can find your Arizona adjusted gross income on line 18 of Arizona Form 140A.

NOTE: Even if you do not have to file, you must still file a return to get a refund of any Arizona income tax withheld.

Do You Have to File if You are an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all the following apply to you.

- You are an enrolled member of an Indian tribe.
- You live on the reservation established for that tribe.
- You earned all of your income on that reservation.

Enrolled members of American Indian tribes that must file a return may subtract wages earned while living and working on their tribe's reservation. If you are eligible to subtract these wages, you must file Form 140. In this case, do not file Form 140A.

The department has issued a ruling on the Arizona tax treatment of American Indians. This ruling is ITR 96-4. To see this ruling, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on legal research and then click on rulings.

Do You Have to File if You are the Spouse of an American Indian and You are Not an Enrolled Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements. The department has issued a ruling on the tax treatment of spouses of American Indians. This ruling is ITR 96-4. To see this ruling, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on legal research and then click on rulings.

Do You Have to File if You are in the Military?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all the following apply to you.

- You are an active duty member of the United States armed forces.
- Your only income for the taxable year is pay received for active duty military service.
- There was no Arizona tax withheld from your active duty military pay.

If Arizona tax was withheld from your active duty military pay, you must file an Arizona income tax return to claim any refund you may be due from that withholding.

You must also file an Arizona income tax return if you have any other income besides pay received for active duty military service.

If you are an Arizona resident and you have to file an Arizona return, you should file using Form 140. If you were an Arizona resident when you entered the service, you remain an Arizona resident, no matter where stationed, until you establish a new domicile. As an Arizona resident, you must report all of your income, no matter where stationed. You must include your military pay, but using Form 140, you may subtract all pay received for active duty military service, to the extent it is included in your federal adjusted gross income.

If you are not an Arizona resident, but stationed in Arizona, the following applies to you.

- You are not subject to Arizona income tax on your military pay.
- You must report any other income you earn in Arizona. Use Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return, to report this income.

To find out more, see our brochure, Pub 704, Taxpayers in the Military. To see this brochure, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on publications.

Residency Status

If you are not sure if you are an Arizona resident for state income tax purposes, we may be able to help. The department has issued a procedure on determining residency status. This procedure is ITP 92-1. To see this procedure, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on legal research and then click on procedures.

Residents

You are a resident of Arizona if your domicile is in Arizona. Domicile is the place where you have your permanent home. It is where you intend to return if you are living or working temporarily in another state or country. If you leave Arizona for a temporary period, you are still an Arizona resident while gone. A resident is subject to tax on all income no matter where the resident earns the income.

Part-Year Residents

If you are a part-year resident, you must file Form 140PY, Part-Year Resident Personal Income Tax Return.

You are a part-year resident if you did either of the following during 2011.

- You moved into Arizona with the intent of becoming a resident.
- You moved out of Arizona with the intent of giving up your Arizona residency.

Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident, you must file Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return.

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 2011, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpayer's property.

If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

The person who files the return should use the form the taxpayer would have used. If the department mailed the taxpayer a booklet, do not use the label. The person who files the return should print the word "deceased" after the decedent's name in the address section of the form. Also enter the date of death after the decedent's name.

If your spouse died in 2011 and you did not remarry in 2011, or if your spouse died in 2012 before filing a return for 2011, you may file a joint return. If your spouse died in 2011, the joint return should show your spouse's 2011 income before death, and your income for all of 2011. If your spouse died in 2012, before filing the 2011 return, the joint return should show all of your income and all of your spouse's income for 2011. Print "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign the return.

Are Any Other Returns Required?

You may also have to file a fiduciary income tax return (Form 141AZ). For details about filing a fiduciary income tax return, call the department at (602) 255-3381.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund for a deceased taxpayer, you must complete Form 131, Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer. Attach this form to the front of the return.

What are the Filing Dates and Penalties?

When Should You File?

You have extra time to file and pay for 2011 because April 15, 2012 falls on a Sunday and April 16, 2012 is a legal holiday in Washington DC. This means that your 2011 calendar year tax return is due no later than midnight, April 17, 2012. File your return as soon as you can after January 1, but no later than April 17, 2012.

What if You Cannot File on Time?

You may request an extension if you know you will not be able to file on time.

NOTE: An extension does not extend the time to pay your income tax. For details, see the instructions for Arizona Form 204.

To get a filing extension, you can either:

1. Apply for a state extension (Form 204). To apply for a state extension, file Arizona Form 204 by April 17. See Form 204 for details. You do not have to attach a copy of the extension to your return when you file, but make sure that you check box 82F on page 1 of the return. If you must make a payment, use Arizona Form 204, or visit www.aztaxes.gov to make an electronic payment.

2. You may use your federal extension (federal Form 4868). File your Arizona return by the same due date. You do not have to attach a copy of your federal extension to your return, but make sure that you check box 82F on page 1 of the return.

When Should You File if You are a Nonresident Alien?

The due date for your Arizona return is not the same as the due date for your federal return. Your Arizona return is due by April 17 even though your federal return is due on June 15. If you want to file your Arizona return after April 17, you must ask for a filing extension. You must file this request by April 17. Arizona will allow up to a 6-month extension. This will allow you to file your return by October 15, 2012. See Form 204 for extension filing details.

If you have a federal 6-month extension, you can file your Arizona return under that extension. If you file using your federal extension, Arizona will also allow you an extra 6 months. Because we will allow only 6 months, the due date for your Arizona return is not the same as the due date for your federal return. In this case, your Arizona return will be due by October 15 even though your federal return will not be due until December 15. If you file your 2011 Arizona calendar year return after October 15, 2012, your return will be late.

If you are a fiscal year filer, your return is due on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year.

What if You File or Pay Late?

If you file or pay late, we will charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe. If the U.S. Post Office postmarks your 2011 calendar year return by April 17, 2012, your return will not be late. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

Late Filing Penalty

If you file late, we will charge you a late filing penalty. This penalty is $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the tax required to be shown on the return for each month or fraction of a month the return is late. This penalty cannot exceed 25% of the tax found to be remaining due.

Late Payment Penalty

If you pay your tax late, we will charge you a late payment penalty. This penalty is $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% (.005) of the amount shown as tax for each month or fraction of a month for which the failure continues. We charge this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed a total of 10%.

Extension Underpayment Penalty

If you file your return under an extension, you must pay 90% of the tax shown on your return by the return's original due date. If you do not pay this amount, we can charge you a penalty. This penalty is $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% (.005) of the tax not paid for each 30 day period or fraction of a 30 day period. We charge this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed 25% of the unpaid tax. If we charge you the extension underpayment penalty, we will not charge you the late payment penalty under Arizona Revised Statutes section 42-1125.D.

NOTE: If you are subject to two or more of the above penalties, the total cannot exceed 25%.

Interest

We charge interest on any tax not paid by the due date. We will charge you interest even if you have an extension. If you have an extension, we will charge you interest from the original due date until the date you pay the tax. The Arizona interest rate is the same as the federal rate.

When Should You Amend a Return?

If you need to make changes to your return once you have filed, you should file Form 140X, Individual Amended Return. You should file your amended return after your original return has processed. Do not file a new return for the year you are correcting. Generally, you have four years to amend a return to claim a refund.

If you amend your federal return for any year, you must also file an Arizona Form 140X for that year. You must file Form 140X within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS.

If the IRS makes a change to your federal taxable income for any year, you must report that change to Arizona. You may use one of the following two options to report this change.

Option 1

You may file a Form 140X for that year. If you choose this option, you must amend your Arizona return within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. Attach a complete copy of the federal notice to your Form 140X.

Option 2

You may file a copy of the final federal notice with the department within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. If you choose this option, you must include a statement in which you must:

1. Request that the department recompute your tax; and
2. Indicate if you agree or disagree with the federal notice.

If you do not agree with the federal notice, you must also include any documents that show why you do not agree.

If you choose option 2, mail the federal notice and any other documents to:

Tips for Preparing Your Return:

- Make sure that you write your SSN on your return.
- Complete your return using black ink.
- You must round dollar amounts to the nearest whole dollar. If 50 cents or more, round up to the next dollar; if less than 50 cents, round down. Do not enter cents.
- You must complete your federal return before you can start your Arizona return.
- Make sure you include your home telephone number. If your daytime number is not the same as your home number, make sure you include a daytime telephone number.

Entering Your Name, Address, and SSN

Lines 1, 2, and 3 -

NOTE: Make sure that you write your SSN on the appropriate line.

If your booklet has a peel-off label, use that label if all the information is correct. If any of the information on the label is incorrect, do not use the label. Attach the label after you finish your return. If you do not have a peel-off label, print or type your name, address, and SSN in the space provided.

If you are filing a joint return, enter your SSNs in the same order as your names. If your name appears first on the return, make sure your SSN is the first number listed.

If you are married filing separately, enter your name and SSN on the first line 1. Then enter your spouse's name and SSN on second line 1.

If you are a nonresident of the United States or a resident alien who does not have an SSN use the identification number (ITIN) the IRS issued to you.

For a deceased taxpayer, see page 2 of these instructions.

Use your current home address. The department will send your refund or correspond with you at that address.

NOTE: Make sure your SSN is correct. If you are filing a joint return, also make sure you list your SSNs in the same order every year.

Make sure that you enter your SSN on your return. Make sure that all SSNs are clear and correct. You may be subject to a penalty if you fail to include your SSN. It will take longer to process your return if SSNs are missing, incorrect, or unclear.

ID Numbers for Paid Preparers

If you pay someone else to prepare your return, that person must also include an ID number where requested.

A paid preparer may use any of the following.

- his or her SSN
- his or her PTIN
- the EIN for the business

A paid preparer who fails to include the proper ID numbers may also be subject to a penalty.

Determining Your Filing Status

The filing status that you use on your Arizona return may be different from that used on your federal return.

Use this section to determine your filing status. Check the correct box (4 through 7) on the front of Form 140A.

Line 4 Box - Married Filing a Joint Return

If you are married and filing a joint return, check box 4.

You may file a joint return if you were married as of December 31, 2011. It does not matter whether or not you were living with your spouse. You may file a joint return, even if you and your spouse filed separate federal returns.

You may file a joint return if your spouse died during 2011 and you did not remarry in 2011. See page 2 of these instructions for details.

The Arizona Form 140A is for full year residents only. You may not file a joint Arizona income tax return on Form 140A if any of the following apply.

1. Your spouse is a nonresident alien (citizen of and living in another country).
2. Your spouse is a resident of another state.
3. Your spouse is a part-year Arizona resident.

If filing a joint return with your nonresident spouse, you must file a joint return using Form 140NR. See Form 140NR instructions.

If filing a joint return with your part-year resident spouse, you must file a joint return using Form 140PY. See Form 140PY instructions.

The department has issued a ruling on filing a joint return with your part-year resident or nonresident spouse. This ruling is ITR 95-2. To see this ruling, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on legal research and then click on rulings.

Line 5 Box - Head of Household

If you are filing as a head of household, check box 5.

You may file as head of household on your Arizona return, only if one of the following applies.

- You qualify to file as head of household on your federal return.
- You qualify to file as a qualifying widow or widower on your federal return.

Line 6 Box - Married Filing Separately

If you are filing a separate return, check box 6 and enter your spouse's name and SSN on the second line 1.

If you were married as of December 31, 2011, you may choose to file a separate return. You may file a separate return, even if you and your spouse filed a joint federal return.

Arizona is a community property state. If you file a separate return, you must figure how much income to report using community property laws. Under these laws, a separate return must reflect one-half of the community income from all sources plus any separate income.

When you file separate returns, you must account for community deductions and credits on the same basis as community income. Both you and your spouse must either itemize or not itemize. If one of you itemizes, you both must itemize. If one of you takes a standard deduction, you both must take a standard deduction. One of you may not claim a standard deduction while the other itemizes.

If you and your spouse support a dependent child from community income, either you or your spouse may claim the dependent. Both of you cannot claim the same dependent on both returns.

The department has issued tax rulings on filing a separate return. These rulings are ITR 93-18 and ITR 93-19. To see these rulings, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on legal research and then click on rulings.

NOTE: In some cases you may treat community income as separate income. The department has issued a ruling on when you may treat community income as separate income. This ruling is ITR 93-22. To see this ruling, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on legal research and then click on rulings.

If one spouse is a resident and the other spouse is not, other special rules may apply when filing a separate return. The department has issued a ruling on how to report income in this case. This ruling is ITR 93-20. To see this ruling, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on legal research and then click on rulings.

Line 7 Box - Single

If you are filing as single, check box 7.

For 2011, you may claim a credit for:

- Donations made directly to the fund during 2011.
- A donation made to the fund on your 2010 income tax return that you filed in 2011.

You may not claim a credit on the 2011 return for a donation made to the fund on your 2011 return. If you make a donation to the fund with your 2011 return, that you file in 2012, you may claim a credit for that donation on your 2012 return.

Complete the worksheet below to figure your credit.

Worksheet for Calculating the 2011 Clean Elections Fund Tax Credit

Line 30 - Unpaid Arizona Use Tax

Use line 30 to report any use tax that you owe from out-of-state purchases that you made in 2011. Enter an amount on line 30 to report your use tax only if all of the following apply.

1. The items you bought were not for business purposes.
2. You stored, used or consumed the item in Arizona.
3. You are not a registered retailer.

For example, you may have bought goods from a catalogue or from the Internet. You may have purchased items costing more than $200, while traveling outside of the U.S. If you made any out-of-state purchase during 2011 and paid no sales tax on that purchase, you must complete the use tax worksheet. You should keep your receipts or invoices for your out-of-state purchases.

Some items are exempt from use tax. For example, you do not have to pay use tax on any of the following items:

- Prescription drugs
- Prescription eyeglasses
- Contact lenses
- Hearing aids

Other items may also be exempt from use tax. To find out more about use tax and items exempt from use tax, see our brochure, Pub 610, Use Tax. To see this brochure, visit our web site at www.azdor.gov and click on publications.

If you did not make any out-of-state purchases during 2011, you do not owe any use tax. In this case, enter "0" on line 30.

Arizona's Use Tax

Arizona's use tax has been part of our tax laws since 1955. Every state with a sales tax also has a use tax. When Arizona shoppers buy from out-of-state sellers who do not collect tax, this puts in-state sellers at a disadvantage. The use tax puts all retailers on a level playing field.

What if I Have Already Paid Tax on My Out-of-State Purchase?

If you have paid sales tax to another state on the purchase, or if you have already paid your Arizona use tax, then you should enter "0" on line 30.

Use Tax Worksheet

Complete the following worksheet to figure your unpaid use tax.

Use Tax Worksheet
1. Taxable Purchases
2. Arizona use tax rate	.066
3. Multiply line 1 by the decimal on line 2. Enter the result here.

The following example shows how to complete the worksheet.

Example: Rita lives in Phoenix and she orders a new bedspread from the Out-of-State Catalog Store based in New York. The price is $125. The Catalog Store collects no tax. Rita must pay Arizona use tax on this purchase. Rita will complete the worksheet as follows:

A postage meter postmark will not qualify as a timely postmark. Only a postmark from the U.S. Post Office will qualify. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

How Long to Keep Your Return

You must keep your records as long as they may be needed for the administration of any provision of Arizona tax law. Generally, this means you must keep records that support items shown on your return until the period of limitations for that return runs out.

The period of limitations is the period of time in which you can amend your return to claim a credit or refund or the department can assess additional tax. A period of limitations is the limited time after which no legal action can be brought. Usually, this is four years from the date the return was due or filed.

In some cases, the limitation period is longer than four years. The period is six years from when you file a return if you underreport the income shown on that return by more than 25%. The department can bring an action at any time if a return is false or fraudulent, or you do not file a return. To find out more about what records you should keep, get federal Publication 552.

Where's My Refund?

If you e-filed, you can expect your refund within 2 weeks of the date you filed. If you filed a paper return, you can expect your refund within 12 weeks of the date you filed. You can check on your refund by visiting www.azdor.gov and clicking on "Where's my refund?" If you have not received your refund within the noted time frames, you may call one of the numbers listed on the back cover. Before you call, be sure to have a copy of your 2011 tax return on hand. You will need to know your SSN, your filing status and your 5-digit zip code.

Calling the Department

Your tax information on file with the department is confidential. If you want the department to discuss your tax matters with someone other than yourself, you must authorize the department to release confidential information to that person. You may use Form 285 to authorize the department to release confidential information to your appointee. See Form 285 for details.

HOW MUCH INCOME CAN YOU HAVE AND PAY NO TAXES?

You still have to file a return, but you pay no taxes if your income is less than the levels shown in the chart below. For purposes of this chart, "income" means Arizona adjusted gross income plus the dependent exemption claimed (Form 140, page 1, line 15 plus the amount on Form 140, page 2, line C15; or Form 140A, page 1, line 18, plus the amount on Form 140A, page 1, line 15, or Form 140EZ, page 1, line 6). To rely on this chart, you must claim the family income tax credit if you are qualified.
