In this case, the child should not file an Arizona return. The parent must include that same income in his or her Arizona taxable income.

Residency Status

If you are not sure if you are an Arizona resident for state income tax purposes, you should get Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 92-1.

Residents

You are a resident of Arizona if your domicile is in Arizona. Domicile is the place where you have your permanent home. It is where you intend to return if you are living or working temporarily in another state or country. If you leave Arizona for a temporary period, you are still an Arizona resident while gone. A resident is subject to tax on all income no matter where the resident earns the income.

If you are a full year resident, you must file Form 140, Form 140A, or Form 140EZ.

Part-Year Residents

If you are a part-year resident, you must file Form 140PY, Part-Year Resident Personal Income Tax Return.

You are a part-year resident if you did either of the following during 2000.

- You moved into Arizona with the intent of becoming a resident.
- You moved out of Arizona with the intent of giving up your Arizona residency.

Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident, you must file Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return.

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 2000, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

The person who files the return should use the form the taxpayer would have used. If the department mailed the taxpayer a booklet, do not use the label. The person who files the return should print the word "deceased" after the decedent's name in the address section of the form. Also enter the date of death after the decedent's name.

If your spouse died in 2000 and you did not remarry in 2000, or if your spouse died in 2001 before filing a return for 2000, you may file a joint return. If your spouse died in 2000, the joint return should show your spouse's 2000 income before death, and your income for all of 2000. If your spouse died in 2001, before filing the 2000 return, the joint return should show all of your income and all of your spouse's income for 2000. Print "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign the return.

Are Any Other Returns Required?

You may also have to file fiduciary income tax or estate tax returns. For details about filing a fiduciary income tax return, call the department at (602) 255-3381. For details about filing an estate tax return, call the department at (602) 542-4643.

Claiming a Refund For a Deceased Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund, you must complete Form 131, Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer. Attach this form to the front of the return.

What Are the Filing Dates and Penalties?

When Should You File?

April 15, 2001 falls on a Sunday. Therefore, your 2000 calendar year tax return is due no later than midnight, April 16, 2001. File your return as soon as you can after January 1, but no later than April 16, 2001.

If you are a fiscal year filer, your return is due on the $15^{\mbox{\tiny th}}$ day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year.

What If You Cannot File On Time?

You may request an extension if you know you will not be able to file on time.

NOTE: An extension does not extend the time to pay your income tax. For details, see the instructions for Arizona Form 204.

To get a filing extension, you can either:

Apply for a state extension (Form 204). To apply for a state extension, file Arizona Form 204 by April 16.
 See Form 204 for details. You must

- attach a copy of the Arizona extension to the front of your return when you file. If you must make a payment, use Arizona Form 204.
- 2. You may use your federal extension (federal Form 4868 or 2688). File your Arizona return by the same due date. If you are filing under a federal extension, you do not have to attach a copy of your federal extension to your return, but make sure that you check either box D or F on page 1 of the return.

When Should You File if You Are a Nonresident Alien?

You must file your Arizona tax return by April 16, even though your federal income tax return is due on June 15. If you want to file your Arizona return when you file your federal return, you may ask for an extension. See Form 204 for extension filing details.

If you are a fiscal year filer, your return is due on the 15^{th} day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year.

What if You File or Pay Late?

If you file or pay late, the department can charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe. If the U.S. Post Office postmarks your 2000 calendar year return by April 16, 2001, your return will not be late. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

Late Filing Penalty

If you file late, the department can charge you a late filing penalty. This penalty is 5 percent of the tax found to be remaining due for each month or fraction of a month the return is late. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the tax found to be remaining due.

Late Payment Penalty

If you pay your tax late, the department can charge you a late payment penalty. This penalty is 10 percent of the tax not paid on time.

If you file your return under an extension, you must pay 90 percent of the tax shown on your return by the return's original due date. If you do not pay this amount, the department can charge you a penalty. The department can also charge you this penalty if you do not attach a copy of the Arizona extension to your return when you file. This penalty is one-half of one percent (.005) of the tax not paid for each 30 day period or fraction of a 30 day period. The department charges this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the unpaid tax.

NOTE: If you are subject to two or more of the above penalties, the total cannot exceed 25 percent.

Interest

The department charges interest on any tax not paid by the due date. The department will charge you interest even if you have an extension. If you have an extension, the department will charge you interest from the original due date until the date you pay the tax. The Arizona rate of interest is the same as the federal rate.

When Should You Amend a Return?

If you need to make changes to your return once you have filed, you should file Form 140X, Individual Amended Return. Do not file a new return for the year you are correcting. Generally, you have four years to amend a return to claim a refund.

If the Internal Revenue Service makes a change to your federal taxable income for any year, you must file a Form 140X for that year. In this case, you must amend your Arizona return within 90 days of the change. Attach a complete copy of the federal notice to your Form 140X.

If you amend your federal return for any year, you must file an Arizona Form 140X for that year. You must file the form 140X within 90 days of amending your federal return.

Do You Need to Make Estimated Payments in 2001?

You must make Arizona estimated income tax payments during 2001 if either of the following apply.

- You reasonably expect your Arizona gross income will exceed $75,000 in 2001.
- 2. Your Arizona gross income in 2000 was greater than $75,000.

As a part-year resident, your Arizona gross income is that part of your federal adjusted gross income that you must report to Arizona.

Make sure you use ordinary business care and prudence when you project your income for 2001.

NOTE: Arizona's community property laws may have an effect on whether you have to make estimated payments. For details, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 92-1.

What if You Make Your Estimated Payments Late?

The department will charge you a penalty if you fail to make any required payments. The department will charge you a penalty if you make any of your required payments late. The department will also charge you interest on any late or underpaid estimated tax payment.

For details, see Arizona Form 221.

Can You Make Estimated Payments if You do Not Have to?

If you do not have to make Arizona estimated income tax payments, you may still choose to make them.

For details, see Arizona Forms $140 \, \mathrm{ES}$ and 221.

- You did not have to include the withdrawal as income on your federal income tax return.

Enter the amount withdrawn.

2 - Deceased Account Holder Where the Named Beneficiary is Not the Decedent's Surviving Spouse

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

- 1. The account holder died during the part of the year you were an Arizona resident.
- 2. The decedent's MSA qualified as an MSA under Arizona law.
- 3. You are the named beneficiary of the decedent's MSA.
- You are not the decedent's surviving spouse.
- 5. You did not have to include the value of the MSA as income on your federal income tax return.

In this case, the MSA ceases to be an MSA. Enter the fair market value of the MSA as of the date of death, less the amount of MSA funds used within one year of the date of death, to pay the decedent's qualified medical expenses. You can reduce the fair market value by only those expenses paid from the MSA. If you pay additional medical expenses for the decedent from the MSA after you file, you may file an amended return to further reduce the fair market value of the MSA.

3 - Decedent's Final Return And No Named MSA Beneficiary

Make an entry here if all of the following apply.

- The account holder died during the part of the year in which he or she was an Arizona resident.
- 2. There is no named MSA beneficiary.
- 3. This is the decedent's final return.
- 4. The value of the MSA did not have to be included on the decedent's final federal income tax return.

In this case, the MSA ceases to be an MSA. Enter the fair market value of the MSA as of the date of death. This rule applies in all cases in which there is no named beneficiary, even if the surviving spouse ultimately obtains the right to the MSA assets.

NOTE: The following are not withdrawals. Do not enter any of the following:

- Amounts from the MSA used to pay qualified medical expenses
- A qualified return of excess contributions
- A qualified rollover
- The fair market value of an MSA received by a surviving spouse who was the deceased account holder's named beneficiary

For more information about the above items, see the department's MSA brochure, Pub 542.

E. Pension Adjustments

Depending on your situation, you may either add (line C24) or subtract (line D36) this amount.

Use this adjustment if both of the following apply.

- 1. Arizona taxed your pension for years before 1979.
- 2. You reported that pension on your federal return using the percentage exclusion method.

Do not use this adjustment if either of the following apply.

 You reported your pension income as fully taxable on your federal return. 2. You reported your pension income on your federal return under the "three-year-rule".

Pension Adjustment Worksheet
Follow these steps to figure the adjustment:
Worksheet (Keep for your records.)
1. Your contribution to 1.
annuity.
2. Pension amount received in prior 2.
years.
3. Remainder of cost
(line 1 minus line 2 3.
but not less than zero).
4. Pension amount received 4.
this year.
5. Amount from line 3. 5.
6. Subtract line 5 from line 4 (but not less 6.
than zero).
7. Enter the pension
amount taxable on your 7.
federal return.
8. Subtract line 7 from 8.
line 6.
If line 8 is more than zero, enter the amount on line 8 as an addition to income. Enter the addition on line
C24.
If line 7 is more than line 6, enter the difference as a subtraction from income.
Enter the subtraction on line D36.

F. Partnership Income

Depending on your situation, you may either add (line C24) or subtract (line D36) this amount.

Use this adjustment if your Arizona Form 165 Schedule K-1 shows a difference between federal and state distributable income.

If the difference reported on your Arizona Form 165, Schedule K-1, is a positive number, enter that portion of the difference that is allocable to partnership income taxable by Arizona as an addition. Enter the addition on line C24.

If the difference reported on your Arizona Form 165, Schedule K-1, is a negative number, enter that portion of the difference that is allocable to partnership income taxable by Arizona as a subtraction. Enter the subtraction on line D36.

G. Net Operating Losses

Arizona does not have specific Arizona net operating loss provisions for individual taxpayers. Arizona conforms to the federal net operating loss provisions, including the carryback provisions.

As a part-year resident, Arizona recognizes that portion of the federal net operating loss which is attributable to income taxed by Arizona as the Arizona net operating loss.

As a part-year Arizona resident, include in Arizona gross income the amount of federal net operating loss carryforward or carryback attributable to Arizona unless any of the following apply.

- 1. The net operating loss attributable to Arizona included in your federal adjusted gross income has already been deducted for Arizona purposes.
- 2. The net operating loss included in your federal adjusted gross income was incurred from non-Arizona sources while a nonresident.
- 3. You took a separate subtraction for the net operating loss included in your federal adjusted gross income on an amended return filed for a prior tax year under the special net operating loss transition rule.

For information on deducting a net operating loss carryback, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 99-1.

H. Agricultural Water Conservation Expenses

If you take this credit, you cannot deduct any expenses for which you claim the credit. If you take this credit, enter the amount of such expenses that you deducted on your federal return.

I. Items Previously Deducted for Arizona Purposes

Arizona statutes prohibit a taxpayer from deducting items more than once. However, under the operation of former Arizona law (1989 and prior), you could deduct certain items in greater amounts for Arizona purposes than federal purposes. Investment interest and passive activity losses were such items. In some cases, you could have deducted such amounts in their entirety on the Arizona return. For federal purposes, the deduction for these items was limited, with the unused portions being carried forward and deducted in future years. Your Arizona return may include these previously deducted items because of the difference between the federal and former Arizona treatment. If your Arizona taxable income includes items previously deducted for Arizona purposes, you must add such amounts to your Arizona gross income.

J. Claim of Right Adjustment for Amounts Repaid in 2000

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

- During 2000, you were required to repay amounts held under a claim of right.
- 2. The amount required to be repaid was subject to Arizona income tax in the year included in income.
- 3. The amount required to be repaid during 2000 was more than $3,000.
- 4. You took a deduction for the amount repaid on your 2000 federal income tax return.
- 5. The deduction taken on your federal income tax return is reflected in your Arizona taxable income.

If the above apply, enter the amount deducted on your federal income tax return which is reflected in your Arizona taxable income.

For more information on the Arizona claim of right provisions, see Arizona Department of Revenue Individual Income Tax Procedure ITP 95-1.

K. Claim of Right Adjustment for Amounts Repaid in Prior Taxable Years

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

- 1. During a year prior to 2000 you were required to repay income held under a claim of right.
- You computed your tax for that prior year under Arizona's claim of right provisions.
- 3. A net operating loss or capital loss was established due to the repayment made in the prior year.
- 4. You are entitled to take that net operating loss or capital loss carryover into account when computing your 2000 Arizona taxable income.
- 5. The amount of the loss carryover included in your Arizona gross income is more than the amount allowed to be taken into account for Arizona purposes.

Enter the amount by which the loss carryover included in your Arizona gross income is more than the amount allowed for the taxable year under Arizona law.

L. Addition to S Corporation Income Due to Credits Claimed

Shareholders of an S corporation who claim a credit passed through from an S corporation must make an addition to income for the amount of expenses disallowed by reason of claiming the credit.

An S corporation that passes the following credits through to its shareholders must notify each shareholder of his or her pro rata share of the adjustment. You must enter an amount on this line when claiming any of the following credits.

- Agricultural water conservation credit
- Defense contracting credit
- Environmental technology facility credit
- Pollution control credit
- Recycling equipment credit
- Credit for solar hot water heater plumbing stub outs and electric vehicle recharge outlets
- Credit for employment of TANF recipients
- Credit for agricultural pollution control equipment

M. Solar Hot Water Heating Plumbing Stub Out And Electric Vehicle Recharge Outlet Expenses

If you take a credit for installing solar hot water heating plumbing stub outs or electric vehicle recharge outlets in a dwelling you constructed, you cannot deduct any expenses for which you claim the credit. If you take this credit, enter the amount of such expenses that you deducted on your federal return.

N. Wage Expense for Employers of TANF Recipients

If you take a credit for employing TANF recipients, you cannot deduct any wage expense for which you claim the credit. If you take this credit, enter the amount of such expenses that you deducted on your federal return.

O. Other Adjustments

Other special adjustments may be necessary. You may need to make an addition for depreciation or amortization. You may also need to make an addition if you claimed certain tax credits. Call one of the numbers listed on the back cover if any of the following apply.

- You are a qualified defense contractor that elected to amortize under Arizona Revised Statutes section 43-1024.
- You sold or disposed of property that was held for the production of income and your basis was computed under the Arizona Income Tax Act of 1954.
- You are still depreciating or amortizing a child care facility for which you claimed a state credit.
- You claimed the environmental technology facility credit.
- You claimed the pollution control credit.
- You claimed the recycling equipment credit.
- You claimed the credit for agricultural pollution control equipment.
- You elected to amortize the basis of a pollution control device or the cost of a child care facility under Arizona law in effect before 1990.
 You are still deducting amortization or depreciation for that device or facility on your federal income tax return.

Line C25 - Total Additions

Add lines C23 and C24. Enter the total on line C25 and on the front of your return on line 16.

Determining Subtractions From Income

You may only subtract those items for which statutory authority exists. Without such authority you cannot take a subtraction. If you have any questions concerning subtractions from income, call one of the help numbers listed on the back cover.

NOTE: You may not subtract any amount which is allocable to income excluded from your Arizona taxable income.

Line D26 - Exemption: Age 65 or Over

Multiply the number in box 8 on the front of your return by $2,100 and enter the result.

Line D27 - Exemption: Blind

Multiply the number in box 9 on the front of your return by $1,500 and enter the result.

Line D28 - Exemption: Dependents

Multiply the number in box 10 on the front of your return by $2,300 and enter the result.

Line D29 - Exemption: Qualifying Parents and Ancestors

Line D30 - Total

Add lines D26 through D29 and enter the total.

Line D31 - Prorated Exemptions

Multiply the amount on line D30 by the Arizona percentage from line B22 and enter the result.

Active Duty Military Personnel Only: If you were an active duty military member who either began or gave up Arizona residency during 2000, do not prorate these exemptions. You are allowed 100 percent deductions for the age 65, the blind, and the dependent exemptions. Enter the amount on line D30 (Total) on this line.

Line D32 - Interest on U.S. Obligations

Enter the amount of interest income from U.S. Government obligations included on line B8 in the ARIZONA column. U.S. Government obligations include obligations such as U.S. savings bonds and treasury bills. You cannot deduct any interest or other related expenses incurred to purchase or carry the obligations. If such expenses are included in your Arizona gross income, you must reduce the subtraction by such expenses. If you are itemizing deductions on your Arizona return, you must exclude such expenses from the amount deducted.

NOTE: Do not subtract interest earned on FNMA or GNMA bonds since this interest is taxable by Arizona. For more information, see the department's Guidelines for Exempt Securities, G91-4.

Do not subtract any amount received from a qualified pension plan that invests in U.S. Government obligations. Do not subtract any amount received from an IRA that invests in U.S. Government obligations. These amounts are not interest income. For more information, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Rulings ITR 96-2 and ITR 96-3.

Line D33 - Arizona Lottery Winnings

You may subtract all winnings received in 2000 related to an Arizona lottery prize won before March 22, 1983. You may subtract up to $5,000 of winnings received in 2000 for Arizona lottery prizes won after March 21, 1983. Only subtract those Arizona lottery winnings that you included on line B15 in the ARIZONA column and reported on your federal income tax return.

If you subtract Arizona lottery winnings here, you may have to adjust the amount of gambling losses claimed as an itemized deduction.

Line D34 - Social Security Benefits or Railroad Retirement Benefits

Arizona does not tax social security benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act. Arizona does not tax railroad retirement benefits received from the Railroad Retirement Board under the Railroad Retirement Act. If you included such social security or railroad retirement benefits on your federal return as income and also included this amount in the Arizona column on line B15, subtract this income on line D34.

Subtract only the amount you reported as income on your federal return and included on line B15 in the Arizona column.

See Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-1 for more information about railroad retirement benefits.

Line D35 - Alternative Fuel Vehicles and Refueling Equipment

Starting with the 1999 taxable year, the alternative fuel subtraction is repealed. Therefore, you may not take a subtraction for alternative fuel vehicles purchased or converted during 2000. You may not take a subtraction for refueling equipment purchased during 2000. However, if you were entitled to a subtraction for refueling equipment or vehicles purchased or converted during 1998, you may still take one-third of the subtraction that is allocable to 2000.

To figure your subtraction complete Part

I of Form 313. Enter the amount from Form 313, Part I, line 3, here.

Line D36 - Other Subtractions

Use line D36 if any of the following special circumstances apply. Attach your own schedule to the back of your return, explaining any amounts entered here.

A. Exclusion for U.S. Government, Arizona State, or Local Government Pensions

If you receive pension income from any of the sources listed below, subtract the amount you received or $2,500, whichever is less. Include only the amount you reported as income on your federal return and included on line B15 in the ARIZONA column. If both you and your spouse receive such pension income, each spouse may subtract the amount received or $2,500, whichever is less.

Public pensions from the following sources qualify for this subtraction:

- The United States Government Service Retirement and Disability Fund
- The United States Foreign Service Retirement and Disability System
- Retired or retainer pay of the uniformed services of the United States
- Any other retirement system or plan established by federal law

- The Arizona State Retirement System
- The Arizona State Retirement Plan
- The Corrections Officer Retirement Plan
- The Public Safety Personnel Retirement System
- The Elected Officials' Retirement Plan
- A retirement plan established for employees of a county, city, or town in Arizona
- An optional retirement program established by the Arizona Board of Regents under Arizona Revised Statutes
- An optional retirement plan established by an Arizona community college district.

NOTE: Public retirement pensions from states other than Arizona do not qualify for this subtraction.

B. Previously Reported Gain on Decedent's Installment Sale

Prior Arizona law required acceleration of any unrecognized installment sale gain upon the death of a taxpayer. However, this acceleration could have been avoided by the posting of a bond. If acceleration was required, your federal adjusted gross income may include installment sale amounts already recognized on a decedent's final Arizona return. Deduct that portion of the gain included on line B13, ARIZONA column.

C. Deposits Made Into Your MSA

If you have an MSA, you may be able to subtract deposits made into that MSA. Make an entry here if all of the following apply.

- You have an MSA that qualifies as an MSA under Arizona law, but not federal law.
- Either you or your employer made deposits into that MSA during the tax year.
- You had to include the deposits in income on your federal income tax return.

Enter the amount of the MSA deposits that you had to include in your federal adjusted gross income.

If you are an employer, you may subtract the amount contributed to your employees' MSAs that are established under Arizona law. You can subtract these contributions only to the extent not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Enter these contributions here.

E. Agricultural Crops Given to Arizona Charitable Organizations

Arizona law allows a subtraction for qualified crop gifts made during 2000 to one or more charitable organizations. To take this subtraction, you must be engaged in the business of farming or processing agricultural crops. The crop must be grown in Arizona. You must make your gift to a charitable organization located in Arizona which is exempt from Arizona tax.

The subtraction is the greater of 80 percent of the wholesale market price or 80 percent of the most recent sale price for the given crop.

To determine if your crop contribution qualifies for this subtraction, see Arizona Department of Revenue Procedure ITP 93-2.

F. Certain Wages of American Indians

Enrolled members of American Indian tribes may subtract wages earned while living and working on their tribe's reservation. You can subtract only those amounts that you included on line B7, ARIZONA column. The federal government must recognize these tribes.

For more information, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling, ITR 96-4.

G. Combat Pay

Members of the U.S. armed forces may subtract pay received for serving in a combat zone or an area given the treatment of a combat zone. Enter only that amount of pay reported on your 2000 federal return that you also included on line B7 in the ARIZONA column.

H. Federally Taxable Arizona Municipal Interest

Enter only that amount of Arizona municipal interest income that you included on line B8 in the ARIZONA column. Do not enter any Arizona municipal interest that is exempt from federal taxation and not included in your federal adjusted gross income.

I. Adoption Expenses

You may take this subtraction only in the year the final adoption order is granted.

When figuring your subtraction, you may include expenses incurred in prior years.

The following expenses are qualified adoption expenses.

1. Nonreimbursed medical and hospital costs.

J. Qualified Wood Stove, Wood Fireplace, or Gas Fired Fireplace

Arizona law provides a subtraction for converting an existing fireplace to a qualified wood stove, qualified wood fireplace, or gas fired fireplace and non-optional equipment directly related to its operation. You may subtract up to of the costs incurred converting an existing fireplace to a qualified wood stove, qualified wood fireplace, or gas fired fireplace on your property located in Arizona. When you figure your subtraction, do not include taxes, interest, or other finance charges.

A qualified wood stove or a qualified wood fireplace is a residential wood heater that was manufactured on or after July 1, 1990, or sold at retail on or after July 1, 1992. The residential wood heater must also meet the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's July 1990 particulate emissions standards.

A qualified gas fired fireplace is any device that burns natural or liquefied petroleum gas as its fuel through a burner system that is permanently installed in the fireplace. The conversion of an existing wood burning fireplace to noncombustible gas logs that are permanently installed in the fireplace also qualifies as a gas fired fireplace.

K. Claim of Right Adjustment for Amounts Repaid in Prior Taxable Years.

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

- 5. You are entitled to take that net operating loss or capital loss carryover into account when computing your 2000 Arizona taxable income.
- 6. The amount of the loss carryover allowed to be taken into account for Arizona purposes is more than the amount included in your Arizona gross income.

Enter the amount by which the loss carryover allowed for the taxable year under Arizona law is more than the amount included in your Arizona gross income.

L. Certain Expenses Not Allowed for Federal Purposes

You may subtract some expenses that you cannot deduct on your federal return when you claim certain federal tax credits. These federal tax credits are:

- the federal work opportunity credit
- the empowerment zone employment credit
- the credit for employer-paid social security taxes on employee cash tips
- the Indian employment credit

If you received any of the above federal tax credits for 2000, enter the portion of wages or salaries attributable to income subject to Arizona tax that you paid or incurred during the taxable year that is equal to the amount of those federal tax credits you received.

M. Qualified State Tuition Program Distributions

If you are a beneficiary of a qualified state tuition program, you may subtract some of the amount distributed from the program for qualified education expenses. Enter the amount of the distribution included in your federal adjusted gross income that you included as income in the Arizona column. A qualified state tuition program is a program that meets the requirements of I.R.C. § 529.

N. Subtraction for World War II Victims

Line D37 - Total Subtractions

Add lines D31 through D36. Enter the total here and on the front of your return, line 19.

Different Last Names

If you filed an Arizona tax return within the past four years with a different last name, enter your prior last name(s) on line E38.

Totaling Your Income

Line 14 - Federal Adjusted Gross Income

You must complete your federal return before completing your Arizona return. You must complete a 2000 federal return to determine your federal adjusted gross income even if not filing a federal return.

Arizona uses federal adjusted gross income as a starting point to determine Arizona taxable income. Enter your federal adjusted gross income from page 2, line B20.

Line 15 - Arizona Income

Enter your Arizona income from page 2, line B21, of your return.

Line 16 - Additions to Income

Enter the amount from page 2, line C25, of your return.

Line 18 - Elective Subtraction of Federal Retirement Contributions

This line applies only to individuals who were civilian employees of the United States Government during 2000. The Arizona Tax Court has ruled that Arizona income taxes paid on contributions to federal retirement plans discriminated against federal employees for years after 1990. The department has appealed that determination to the Arizona Court of Appeals, so the issue is not yet final.

Line 18 is provided to alert you to a remedy available to you under Arizona law. On your 2000 return, you have two options.

Option #1

subtract amount You may the contributions to your retirement plan that was withheld from your wages paid by the federal government. Enter on line 18 the 2000 amount of such contributions included in your Arizona income subject to tax. If you choose this option and the courts ultimately decide that it is legal for the State of Arizona to tax your retirement contributions, you will owe additional tax and accrued interest. (Also, see Protective Claim for Refund below.)

Option #2

You may choose to ignore line 18. You may instead file the protective claim form. This form is in this instruction booklet. Under this option you will pay tax on your contributions to the federal retirement plan. You will also protect your rights to a credit or refund of this tax if the courts ultimately decide that is appropriate. The state will pay interest in this event. The courts have been asked to award up to 20% of your refund to the attorneys in the case.

Protective Claim for Refund

find this form in instruction booklet. You can find this form at the bottom of the page titled Notice to Current and Former Federal Civilian Employees. If you were a civilian employee of the United States government at any time during the years 1996 through 2000, you should complete this claim form. Submitting this claim form will protect your rights to tax relief for the years you were so employed. If you choose option #2 for 2000, you should also include 2000 in your claim. Claims for 1996 must be postmarked by April 16, 2001, to be valid. If you previously filed protective claim for 1996 through 1999, only include 2000 on the claim form filed for 2000.

Please do not include the protective claim with your 2000 income tax return. Mail the claim form separately to the address indicated to ensure proper handling.

Line 19 - Subtractions From Income

Enter the amount from page 2, line D37, of your return.

Figuring Your Arizona Tax

Line 21 - Itemized or Standard

Deductions

You must decide whether to take the standard deduction or to itemize your deductions. Your Arizona income tax will be less if you take the larger of your standard deduction or your itemized deduction.

Your Standard Deduction

Tax Tip: The standard deduction is not prorated.

If you take the standard deduction, check box 21S.

If your filing status is:	Your standard deduction is:

A part-year resident who has no Arizona source income during the part of the year while an Arizona nonresident can deduct all of the following.

- 1. Those expenses incurred and paid during the part of the year while an Arizona resident.

For more information on itemized deductions allowed to a part-year Arizona resident, see Arizona Individual Income Tax Ruling ITR 94-10.

Line 22 - Personal Exemptions

Your personal exemption depends on your filing status. See Personal Exemption Chart. Then complete the Personal Exemption Worksheet.

NOTE For Active Duty Military Personnel Only: If you were an active duty military member who either began or gave up Arizona residency during 2000, do not prorate the personal exemption. You are allowed a 100 percent deduction for the personal exemption (to include spouse).

Filing Your Return

Before you mail your return, make a copy of your return. Also make a copy of any schedules that you are sending in with your return. Keep the copies for your records. Be sure that you file the original and not a copy.

To mail your return, use an envelope that came in your booklet.

Where Should I Mail My Return?

If you are expecting a refund, or owe no tax, or owe tax but are not sending a payment, use the gold envelope. If the gold envelope is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52138, Phoenix AZ 85072-2138.

If you are sending a payment with this return, use the green envelope. If the green envelope is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52016, Phoenix AZ 85072-2016.

Make sure you put enough postage on the envelope.

The U.S. Post Office must postmark your return or extension request by midnight April 16. A postage meter postmark will not qualify as a timely postmark. Only a postmark from the U.S. Post Office will qualify. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

How Long To Keep Your Return

Keep your records as long as they are important for any Arizona tax law. Keep all records that support your income and deductions for a tax year until the period of limitations expires for the return for that tax year. A period of limitations is the limited time after which no legal action can be brought. Usually, this is four years from the date the return was due or filed.

In some cases, the limitation period is longer than four years. The period is six years from when you file a return if you under report the income shown on that return by more than 25 percent. The department can bring an action at any time if a return is false or fraudulent, or you do not file a return.

Keep records that establish the basis of property for a period longer than four years. Also keep net operating loss records back to the date you incurred the loss. To find out more about what records you should keep, get federal Publication 552.
