Use Form 201 if you rented in 2016 and are claiming the property tax credit. This certificate shows what portion of your rent money went to pay taxes. Your landlord or designated agent must sign and complete this form in order for you to qualify for your credit. USE BLACK INK ONLY.

HOW TO USE THIS FORM

Homeowners:

 If you own the home you live in, do not use this form. Homeowners claiming a property tax credit rebate must send a statement of property taxes paid rather than this form. See Form 140PTC instructions.

Renters Seeking a Tax Rebate on Form 140PTC:

- 1. Ask your landlord to complete Part 2 of this form.
- 2. Complete Parts 1 and 3 if you qualify. See instructions.
- 3. Use this information to complete your Form 140PTC.
- 4. Include this certificate with your Form 140PTC and keep a copy for your tax records.

IMPORTANT: For 2016, be sure to have your landlord complete this form well before April 18, 2017 or request an extension to protect the credit. Landlords may not have the information immediately available.
