Katie Hobbs
Governor

Rob Woods
Director

Dear Unclaimed Property Holder:

On behalf of the citizens of Arizona, I would like to thank you for taking the time to file your Unclaimed Property Report with the Arizona Department of Revenue. We have made every effort to design this booklet to be informative and as user friendly as possible. By completing your annual report, you are not only complying with Arizona Revised Statutes, Title 44, Chapter 3, but you are performing a valuable service to the citizenry by helping us protect abandoned property.

The Unclaimed Property Unit works hard to assist holders and claimants of abandoned assets alike. Each year we collect thousands of new properties and return millions of dollars to its rightful owners. Unclaimed Property has become an increasingly important program for our growing population, and you complete the first step by filing this report and remitting abandoned assets to the Department of Revenue.

If you should have any questions on how to complete the report forms contained in this booklet, feel free to contact the Holder Compliance Unit at their email ReportingUnclaimedProperty@azdor.gov. Electronic versions of this booklet, along with fillable forms are available from our website at www.azdor.gov/unclaimed-property

Again, thank you for helping us return property to its rightful owner.

Sincerely,

William Nagel
Administrator

GENERAL OVERVIEW

What is Unclaimed Property?

Unclaimed Property is a financial asset owed to an individual or business. Property is considered unclaimed when there has been no owner contact for a specified period of time, usually between 1 and 3 years.

When efforts by the holder to locate the owner fail, the funds must be turned over to the Department of Revenue which is then responsible for safeguarding the funds, attempting to locate the owners, publicizing the names of apparent owners and returning the assets to the owners as they come forward.

The Revised Arizona Unclaimed Property Act is located in Arizona Revised Statutes, Title 44, Chapter 3, and can be found online at www.azleg.gov.

Who must report Unclaimed Property?

Any person or entity in possession of property (subject to the Act) which belongs to another, or who is trustee in case of a trust, or who is indebted to another person on an obligation subject to the Act, is deemed a holder of unclaimed property and must report that property to the state. All holders, whether located in Arizona or in other states, must report to the Department of Revenue any unclaimed property they hold that is owed to Arizona residents. Arizona domiciled businesses must also report all property where the owners name and address is unknown. All business entities are responsible for filing reports on behalf of their branches, divisions or other affiliates, including:

- Banking and financial institutions including state or federally chartered banks, trust companies, savings banks, private bankers, savings and loan associations, credit unions and investment companies.
- Business associations wherever located, such as a corporation, joint stock company, business trust, partnership, proprietorship, cooperative, or other association for business purposes (including all insurance companies).
- Other legal entities including state, county and city governments, political subdivisions, public authorities, public corporations, estates, trusts or any other legal or commercial entity.

Information about other states and their unclaimed property reporting requirements can be accessed through the NAUPA (National Association of Unclaimed Property Administrators) web site at www.unclaimed.org

What Unclaimed Property should be reported?

Reportable items with respective property codes and dormancy periods are located in the NAUPA property type codes section of this booklet. Holders must report all unclaimed property that is owed to an Arizona resident or business. In addition, Arizona domiciled holders should report items to Arizona without an owner name or address and all unclaimed property where the last known address is in a foreign country.

- Securities representing underlying shares, stock splits, bonds, etc., must be registered in Arizona's nominee name of HARE & CO. (See the instructions for Reporting Securities section for more information).
- Safe Deposit Box contents that have been unclaimed by the owner for a period of three years after expiration of the lease must be reported. Please complete an Unclaimed Property report (650C), indicating on the Schedule A all available information, and contact safekeeping representative via email at ReportingUnclaimedProperty@azdor.gov to arrange for delivery of the property.

DO NOT send safe deposit box contents with your report. After you remit your report, the Unclaimed Property Vault Supervisor will contact you with a report confirmation number and remittance instructions.

Packaging Contents

- The contents of each safe deposit box must be placed into a container, bag, or envelope that is properly sealed to prevent access to the contents. The Department will accept most forms of tamper proof seals including security tape and heat sealed packages. The contents must be delivered in a container that is separate from the sealed container, bag, or envelope holding the items. Be especially careful with fragile, heavy, or irregular shaped objects as items are tossed around during shipping and the envelopes they are sent in can be ripped or torn.
- Each container of contents should be clearly labeled with the owners name and the box number. If you need more than one envelope for each owner, please indicate 1 of 2, 2 of 2, etc.
- Prepare 2 copies of the inventory for each owner. Place the original inside with the contents and attach the copy to the outside of each container of contents. Each inventory sheet should include your company name, owner name, box number and description of each item of property.
- Place envelopes in a shipping container, alphabetically by owner name. Label the outside of the shipping container Box __ of __ (Box 1 of 3 Owners A-F, Box 2 of 3 Owners G-R, Box 3 of 3 Owners S-Z).

Delivering Contents

The Department recommends that contents are delivered in person by an employee of the bank, but will accept courier delivery if indemnified by the holder. These arrangements must be made with a safekeeping representative who can be reached by email at ReportingUnclaimedProperty@azdor.gov

If you choose to send by courier, use an insured carrier in order to safeguard and track packages. A copy of the report you submitted in November, including Schedule A, must accompany the contents of the boxes you are remitting. The Department will verify that each set of contents received at delivery corresponds to a name on the Schedule A. The Department shall notify you of any discrepancies with the report.

Send contents to:

Unclaimed Property Unit

Relationship Codes/Payment Protocols

Please carefully review the relationship codes to ensure that your company is indicating the correct payment protocol. Individual names reported without a relationship code will be coded as payees. If there is more than one owner, you must indicate the relationship for each. All accepted relationship codes are listed below.

Relationship Codes

Code	Definition	Payment Protocol
AG	Agent for Owner	The individual or entity named as agent may claim property on behalf of the individual(s) named as owner(s). The Agent will be required to provide verification that they continue to have authority to act on behalf of the named owner. Payment will be issued in the name of the owner(s). Any named owner(s) may also receive payment by claiming on their own behalf. (Examples: Power of Attorney, Guardian, Attorney for, Conservator)
AD	Administrator of Estate	A person or entity appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to administer the estate of a person who has died (Examples: Executor, Executrix, and Personal Representative). Payment will be issued to the Estate.
AN	And (Unspecified Joint Relationship)	Named individuals must claim together or show good cause, such as divorce or death, to claim separately. If paid individually each owner will receive an equal share.
BF	Beneficiary	Each individual named as a beneficiary will be paid an equal share of the property. For non-demutualization properties only the individual named as beneficiary will be paid.
CF	Custodian	The individual or entity named as custodian can claim on behalf of the individual(s) named as owner(s). Payment will be issued in the name of the owner(s). Any named owner(s) may also receive payment by claiming on their own behalf.
CP	Community Property	Property or earnings received by a husband and wife during marriage, other than by gift, devise, or descent. Each spouse should be listed as an owner and will be paid an equal share of the property. Upon the death of one, the property goes to the survivor.
IN	Insured	Individuals named as the insured will not be paid. The individual named as beneficiary will be paid. If the beneficiary is deceased and no successor beneficiary exists the property will be paid to the estate of the individual named as the insured.
JS	Joint Tenants with Rights of Survivorship	Each individual named as a joint tenant with rights of survivorship will be paid an equal share of the property. Deceased individual's portion of the property will be paid to the surviving owner(s).
