General Instructions

Use of the Form

A business entity that files a single Arizona income tax return that includes income from more than one transaction privilege tax (TPT) license may file this election form if it expects that the credit for accounting and reporting expenses for all TPT licenses will meet or exceed the maximum credit amount for the calendar year.

- For taxpayers that file their TPT return(s) on paper, the credit is equal to 1 percent of the tax due, up to a maximum credit of $10,000 for the calendar year.
- For taxpayers that file their TPT return(s) electronically, the credit is equal to 1.2 percent of the tax due, up to a maximum credit of $12,000 for the calendar year.

NOTE: Taxpayers that do not file all their TPT returns electronically for the calendar year do NOT qualify for the accounting and reporting credit of 1.2% of the tax due (up to a maximum credit of $12,000).

Complete and submit Form 51T to allocate the credit among the licensees.

Claim the Credit for Accounting and Reporting Expenses on the licensees' TPT return(s), Form TPT-2.

For additional information, see Arizona Revised Statutes § 42-5017.

Filing an Original Election

The election is due on or before the 15th day of January of the first year for which an election is being made. If the taxpayer is a new entity, the election is due 30 days prior to beginning operations.

Use whole dollar amounts to allocate the credit. If no credit is allocated to a particular licensee, enter "0".

Filing an Amended Election

An amended election may be filed under the following circumstances:

- 1) If the taxpayer does not claim the entire credit by the end of the calendar year, the taxpayer may amend the election at the end of the calendar year to reallocate the unclaimed portion. The amended election is due by January 31 of the following year.
- 2) If the taxpayer acquires, sells or terminates a taxable business during the calendar year, the taxpayer may amend the election at that time to reallocate the portion of the credit that has not been claimed, at least 30 days prior to the next due date of Form TPT-2 on which the reallocated credit will be claimed.

Mail the original or the amended election to:

Arizona Department of Revenue
PO Box 29010
Phoenix, AZ 85038-9010
